Annual Easter Tea and Linen Shower for Benefit of Sibley Hospital Set for April 13.

Sibley Hospital, it is declared, will no doubt see a real "shower" of beautiful white linen on the afternoon of Friday, April 13, which is the date set for the annual Easter tea and linen shower which will be given under the auspices of the Woman's Guild of the hospital.

Most encouraging reports, it is pointed out, were received at a special meeting which was held at Rust Hall Thursday, and the affair promises to be a big success.

Rev. Julian Kennedy Smyth of New York city is to be the special speaker at the Church of the New Jerusalem, 16th and Corcoran streets, tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. He will address the audience on the subject, "The Human Nature of God," giving the line of explanation of the apparent dual personality of Christ, as held in the New church. The address, it is announced, will not be argumentative or technical, but an affectionate presentation of some fundamental principles, particular attention being given to definite statements in the word of God.

Following the address, the speaker will answer questions, and one of the questions which some of those interested have arranged to ask him is the one, "Do the dead come back?" which is raised by the recent book, "Raymond," by the English writer, Sir Oliver Lodge. It is known that the speaker has given special study to this question, and that he salem on various religious problems.

Rev. Dr. Smyth is the official head of the Church of the New Jerusalem in America and regarded as a speaker of rare force and charm, and the author of many religious books which are well and rvorably known. This address will be the last of a special This address will be the last of a special series given during the Lenten season on the distinctive teachings of the Church of the New Jerusalem. The preceding lectures have been given in the New Masonic Temple auditorium on Sunday afternoons. Like the other lectures, this one Sunday evening will be given without charge.

Dr. Samuel J. MacWatters will deliver three lectures next week on Shakespeare at the American University. The first lecture will be given Three Periods."

Dr. MacWatters divides the plays and the poems of the Elizabethan age into three distinct periods and seeks to show by these periods the development of the mind of the poet.

This fundamental idea is set forth in the first lecture, and it is an integral part of the following lectures.

"The Ideal" is the subject of the second lecture, which will be delivered Wednesday. The contention of the lecture is that each poem and play has a definite ideal, and during the three periods these ideals reveal a clear development, culminating in what might be called Shakespeare's supreme ideal. The closing lecture is to be This week.
